

Broken Dishes or Bow Tie

Bow ties told slaves that someone would bring them nice clothes to help them stand out less as an escaped slave in the north.

Flying Geese

This pattern told slaves to follow migrating geese north towards Canada – and freedom.

Classroom Freedom Quilt

What you need: Colored pencils, crayons, markers and ruler

Directions:

1. Use the word bank and research the name of a slave quilt square. In your own words, explain what the quilt's message was.
2. Use the template, and create a quilt square based on your definition.
3. Add your quilt square to the class Freedom Quilt.

Word Bank:

North Star

Drunkard's Path

Wagon Wheel

Flying Geese

Monkey Wrench

Tumbling Blocks

Bear's Paw

Broken Dishes (Bow Tie)

Sailboat

Shoofly

